PILGRIMAGE: RITUAL AND PRACTICE IN FRANCE

SPONSORED BY THE COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES, DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS STUDIES

Spring Break Study Abroad Program
March 10 - 18, 2018

Program Director
Dr. David Bell: davidbell@gsu.edu

Program Description

Pilgrimage Sites in Europe will take place during Spring Break of the Spring 2018 semester, with 5 days in Paris and 4 days in Lourdes, France. Drawing from over a millions pilgrims a year, Lourdes is located in the south of France along the Pyrenean mountains and draws multitudes seeking both physical and spiritual healing. From here, students will study firsthand the experience of pilgrimage, as well as explore centuries-old sites in this historic town. Students will begin and end the trip in Paris with multiple pilgrimage sites and a vast array of diverse interpretation of pilgrimage and ritual.

Schedule: one class prior to the trip will be held on GSU’s campus on a date to be announced. The students will fly from Atlanta to Paris on March 10, arriving Saturday, March 11. Daily classes will be held in the mornings with group outings and free time in the afternoons. The group will take a high speed train to Lourdes (six hours away) on March 14 returning on the morning of March 18, and then flying out on March 18 back to Atlanta.

Students will learn about the central role of pilgrimage in the religious lives of the pilgrims, the cultural contexts of the pilgrimage sites, and how to study a religious practice using interdisciplinary methods. Students will keep a pilgrimage journal and write a final paper upon their return to Atlanta. While some of the days will be organized around the class and group excursions, students will also have plenty of time for individual interests.
