

CURRICULUM VITAE

Ashlyn W. Strozier
Lecturer
Department of Religious Studies
College of Arts & Science
Georgia State University
25 Park Place Atlanta, Ga
4042167254 | astrozier2@gsu.edu

EDUCATION

Claremont Graduate University, Claremont, CA Department of Religion	Summer 2021 Women Studies in Religion
The Interdenominational Theological Center <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Concentration in Ethics/Theology• Master Thesis “African American Muslim Women An Emerging Category in Religious Scholarship: A Womanist Approach”	Masters of Divinity 2014
University of West Georgia	Educational Specialist 2010
Georgia State University	Masters of Education 2008
Fort Valley State University	Bachelor of Arts 2004

PUBLICATIONS, RESEARCH GRANTS, AND PAPERS

Articles:

"I don't want to turn my camera on!" Creating Equitable Virtual Learning Communities in process
American Academy of Religion Teaching and Learning

Presentations:

“Womanist Ethic of Care- Welfare State” Paper selected for Society of Christian Ethic in January 2020 American Academy of Religion –Reproductive Justice Activist and Scholars in Dialogue: Womanists Approaches to Religion and Society Unit and Women of Color of Scholarship Teaching and Activism Unit--Paper Session and Panel Participant
2019

“Black Girl Magic to Black Woman Power”: A Womanist Mode of to Liberation Paper presented Society of Christian Ethics-Futures Scholars Panel – A Tribute to James Cone

2018

“What You Preach’in We Ain’t Liv’in”: An Ethnographic Look at Black Women’s Reproductive Lives and Faith.” Paper presented (American Academy of Religion’s Women of Color Scholarship, Teaching, and Activism Section Paper Presentation), Boston, MA 2017

“Domestic and International Secondary and University Matters Affecting Students and Faculty of Color: Toward Equity and Fairness” Chaired Panel 61ST Annual Mtg. of Comparative and International Education Society 2017

“Sexual and Gender Performance of Black Women 1880-1955: The Intersections of Race, Class, Gender, Sexuality, Religion, and Education” Paper Selected American Academy of Religion’s Women of Color Scholarship, Teaching, and Activism Section Paper Presentation: 2016

“Histories of Sexual and Gender Performance of Black Women 1880-1955: The Intersections of Race, Class, Gender, Sexuality, Religion, and Education” Paper Presentation Black Doctoral Network 2016

“African American Muslim Women: An Emerging Category using Womanist Approach” Presentation of Papers American Academy Religion in Southeastern Conference 2015

Grants and Fellowships

Wabash Center: Hybrid Teaching & Learning Workshop for Early Career Religion Faculty Teaching Undergraduates. 2022

SERVICE

Department

Tenure Track Search Committee
Program Committee
Executive Committee

Professional Service

Styberg Preaching Institute at Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary and Lily Foundation
Peer Learning Group, 2/2019-present

Amplify Project Clergy Member, SisterSong: Women of Color Reproductive Justice, 3/2019-2020

Community Advisory Board Member for Black and Latina Medication Abortion Access, Sisterlove, INC, 4/2019-2020

Professional Affiliations

American Academy of Religion
Society of Christian Ethics
Interfaith Voice for Reproductive Justice

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority
Georgia Association of Educators
Teaching Early Childhood K-5 State of Georgia
American Baptist Association

Courses Taught

REL 2001 Introduction to World Religion

RELS 3/6700 #MeToo: Pop Culture, Social Media, Religion, and Rape Culture

RELS3/6700 Black Power to Black Liver Matter

RELS 4/6789 Applied Religious Studies